PEERLESS PURSUER OF JUSTICE FOR THE INJURED

During the past 60 years, Malone Law has built a legacy of helping people heal from grave injuries while making the world a safer place for all. The firm, led by Adam Malone, channels a passion for justice into every case it takes, applying legal expertise and steely determination to hold responsible parties accountable.

Malone Law applies deep knowledge of medical malpractice, catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death to secure results for clients. The team regularly prevails thanks to its mastery of complex medical and hospital negligence including birth injuries, medication and surgical errors, misdiagnosis, spinal cord injury and death.

Ranked the #1 attorney for Georgia Super Lawyers in 2023, 2025 and 2026, Malone has obtained more than $60 million total for clients in the past 12 months and more than $700 million during his career. The firm's often record-setting results come from investing countless hours, uncovering vital evidence and building unimpeachable cases that change wrongful conduct.

“When a hospital and their insurance companies see our name on a lawsuit, they should take a close look at the wrongdoing because we are probably going to win.”

—Adam Malone

CHANGING LIVES AND LAWS

Malone Law takes a select number of cases each year so that it can focus its complete attention on each injured person and surviving loved ones. The firm’s lawyers work with compassion, integrity and fearlessness to obtain full damages that help clients recover from life-changing injuries.

The team evaluates cases for egregious wrongdoing and takes the ones with the greatest potential to help individuals and improve patient safety in Georgia. Other lawyers regularly refer cases to the firm, putting their clients in expert hands while earning substantial referral fees for themselves. Perpetually prepared for trial, the Malone firm spares no expense to fight for clients and will always have the nation’s leading medical experts supporting its clients no matter the specialty.

A Malone Law victory is a win for all. Thanks to many of the firm’s verdicts and settlements, laws have changed and medical providers and corporations work harder to prevent similar injuries.

Malone Law concentrates solely on severe injury and wrongful death cases, including those involving:

MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE | HOSPITAL NEGLIGENCE | ANOXIC BRAIN INJURY | TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY | STROKE | BIRTH INJURY | CEREBRAL PALSY | HYPOXIC ISCHEMIC ENCEPHALOPATHY (HIE) | SPINAL CORD INJURY | AMPUTATION | WRONGFUL DEATH | TRUCKING & COMMERCIAL VEHICLE WRECKS

ROBUST TEAM OF TRIAL-READY LAWYERS

The Malone firm recently expanded to enhance an already exceptional team. Three highly skilled attorneys work alongside Adam Malone, bringing even more legal skill and horsepower to each case. The Malone team includes:

MERI BENOIT LINK

Meri Benoit Link came to Malone Law with experience working in complex business litigation and defending health care clients from negligence claims. A seasoned trial lawyer, who was named a Super Lawyers honoree this year, Link uses her expertise to fight for people who were seriously harmed by medical malpractice or other personal injury.

CHRISTOHER CARTER

Christopher Carter, a former state and federal prosecutor, has significant trial experience from his work bringing people to justice for violent crimes. He represented corporations in trucking, premises liability and products liability cases before realizing his calling to help seriously injured people.

“We are always building on our tradition of excellence to be better. Having these additional lawyers on our team permits us to be that much more effective.”

—Adam Malone

WYNN SOWERSBY

Wynn Sowersby brings three decades of legal experience as a trial lawyer and staff attorney in the Georgia courts. Working for judges in three counties on civil and criminal matters, Sowersby has handled more than 40,000 cases and written more than 20,000 opinions. This gives her deep skills in legal research and a unique perspective on serious injury cases.

“Because of Malone Law, we can provide what our daughter needs for the future. The burden was off our shoulders. We had an ally.”

DEDICATED TO GIVING BACK

Adam Malone’s commitment to justice extends to his extensive work with the legal community and beyond. Malone launched his legal career after graduating from John Marshall Law School, inspiring him to serve on its Board of Directors for 17 years and as board chair since 2023. Malone is especially proud that the school has a new dean in Martin Ellin and recently opened its Criminal and Civil Justice Institute to serve the community and legal profession.

Malone also has helped lead the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association for more than 20 years, including serving as president. He strives to promote its mission to protect judicial independence and constitutional rights.

In addition, Malone serves on the Shepherd Center Foundation Board in Atlanta, the nation’s leading rehabilitation hospital for patients with brain and spinal cord injuries.
